

SIGNiX and zipLogix™ Deepen E-Signature Partnership for Continued Real Estate Leadership

SIGNiX recently announced that it has deepened its relationship with real estate technology partner zipLogix™. The renewed partnership will expand access to secure, easy-to-use e-signature technology at a low cost to real estate organizations and professionals across the country.

SIGNiX and zipLogix have committed to a strategic, three-year agreement in which the two companies will continue to provide real estate associations and real estate professionals with SIGNiX's Independent E-Signatures™, the signature engine behind zipLogix Digital Ink® software.

In the five years since the partnership began, zipLogix Digital Ink®, powered by SIGNiX technology, has become the number one e-signature solution for real estate professionals.

“zipLogix™ was one of our earliest partners and continues to be an outstanding accelerator and advocate of automation, including e-signatures, in the real estate industry,” says Jay Jumper, CEO of SIGNiX. “We are honored to continue our relationship with zipLogix™, the clear industry leader. In five years, we’ve built a strong foundation, and through continued product development, we are now positioned to grow the customer base significantly in the coming months and years.”

“SIGNiX provides a level of service and a commitment to partner engagement that is unmatched in the marketplace,” says Mark Peterson, zipLogix™ chairman of the board. “The level of document ownership, legal validity and security is exactly what the paper-intensive real estate industry needs to mitigate any unforeseen risks of the digital environment. We are pleased to see this partnership thrive and develop into one of the most sought-after technology solutions on the market.”

SIGNiX's Independent E-Signatures™ are unlike other electronic signatures in that they permanently embed the legal evidence of an e-signature directly into a signed document—where it can be
